CHAPTER 97

FINAL EXAMINATION

NHMEC Canine Herbalist Coach Certification Program

Student Name: _____

Date: _____

Instructor: _____

Passing Score: 80%

Instructions

Choose the best answer for each question.

This examination is designed to evaluate student competency in:

✔ Canine Body Systems

✔ Herbal Materia Medica

✔ Safety & Scope of Practice

✔ Herbal Preparations & Formulations

✔ Breed-Specific Wellness Support

✔ Canine Nutrition

✔ Professional Ethics

SECTION I — BODY SYSTEMS

1. Which body system is primarily responsible for nutrient absorption?

A. Respiratory

B. Digestive

C. Nervous

D. Musculoskeletal

---

2. The liver is responsible for:

A. Producing hair

B. Oxygen exchange

C. Detoxification and bile production

D. Joint lubrication

---

3. Which body system includes bones, muscles, tendons, and ligaments?

A. Endocrine

B. Musculoskeletal

C. Respiratory

D. Cardiovascular

---

4. The lymphatic system helps support:

A. Vision

B. Digestion only

C. Immune function and drainage

D. Hearing

---

5. Which body system regulates hormones?

A. Endocrine

B. Digestive

C. Respiratory

D. Urinary

SECTION II — MATERIA MEDICA

6. Chamomile is traditionally used to support:

A. Calmness and digestion

B. Bone growth

C. Hearing

D. Vision

---

7. Milk Thistle is most commonly associated with support of the:

A. Respiratory system

B. Liver

C. Skin

D. Reproductive system

---

8. Nettle Leaf is known as:

A. A nutritional tonic herb

B. A synthetic supplement

C. A stimulant drug

D. A sedative medication

---

9. Hawthorn is traditionally used to support:

A. Digestion

B. Heart and circulation

C. Skin

D. Urinary function

---

10. Slippery Elm is often used to support:

A. Digestive comfort

B. Eye health

C. Coat color

D. Teeth whitening

SECTION III — SAFETY

11. A Canine Herbalist Coach may:

A. Diagnose disease

B. Prescribe medication

C. Provide wellness education

D. Perform surgery

---

12. Which situation requires immediate veterinary referral?

A. Mild seasonal shedding

B. Healthy appetite

C. Difficulty breathing

D. Occasional barking

---

13. Which food is considered toxic to dogs?

A. Pumpkin

B. Green beans

C. Chocolate

D. Blueberries

---

14. Essential oils should be used:

A. Freely without caution

B. With proper caution and education

C. As a replacement for veterinary care

D. In all foods

---

15. Herbs should:

A. Replace emergency care

B. Delay treatment

C. Support wellness responsibly

D. Be used without observation

SECTION IV — FORMULATIONS

16. A tea made from leaves and flowers is called:

A. Decoction

B. Infusion

C. Salve

D. Poultice

---

17. A preparation made from roots and bark is commonly called:

A. Decoction

B. Infusion

C. Compress

D. Powder

---

18. Which preparation is commonly added directly to food?

A. Powder

B. Steam inhalation

C. Bath soak

D. Compress

---

19. A glycerite uses:

A. Alcohol only

B. Vegetable glycerin

C. Bleach

D. Vinegar only

---

20. Calendula is commonly prepared as:

A. Skin oil or salve

B. Engine lubricant

C. Shampoo only

D. Chemical solvent

SECTION V — BREED CONSIDERATIONS

21. Labrador Retrievers commonly benefit from wellness support focused on:

A. Joint health

B. Wing development

C. Hoof growth

D. Feather quality

---

22. Bulldogs frequently require additional support for:

A. Skin and respiratory wellness

B. Tail feathers

C. Milk production

D. Egg laying

---

23. Chihuahuas commonly benefit from support related to:

A. Anxiety and dental wellness

B. Hoof trimming

C. Wool growth

D. Horn development

---

24. German Shepherds are often associated with:

A. Digestive and mobility concerns

B. Shell growth

C. Feather care

D. Aquatic wellness

---

25. Senior dogs often require support for:

A. Mobility and vitality

B. Antler growth

C. Egg production

D. Feather molt

SECTION VI — NUTRITION

26. Water is:

A. Optional

B. A vitamin

C. The most important nutrient

D. A supplement

---

27. Pumpkin is commonly used to support:

A. Digestive wellness

B. Vision only

C. Hearing only

D. Nail growth

---

28. Which is considered a healthy wellness practice?

A. Consistent feeding schedule

B. Unlimited treats

C. No exercise

D. Poor hydration

---

29. Probiotics are traditionally used to support:

A. Gut health

B. Coat color

C. Bark volume

D. Paw size

---

30. Weight management supports:

A. Joint health

B. Digestion

C. Cardiovascular wellness

D. All of the above

SECTION VII — ETHICS

31. Ethical practice requires:

A. Honesty

B. Integrity

C. Respect

D. All of the above

---

32. A Canine Herbalist Coach should:

A. Work within scope

B. Diagnose disease

C. Prescribe drugs

D. Perform surgery

---

33. Veterinary professionals should be:

A. Ignored

B. Viewed as partners in care

C. Replaced

D. Avoided

---

34. Documentation helps:

A. Track progress

B. Improve professionalism

C. Maintain records

D. All of the above

---

35. The NHMEC stewardship model emphasizes:

A. Observe

B. Educate

C. Support

D. Steward

E. All of the above

BONUS QUESTIONS

36. Name three herbs commonly used for digestive support.

37. Name three herbs commonly used for joint support.

38. Name three herbs commonly used for calming support.

39. What are the four NHMEC Stewardship Principles?

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____

_____

40. Why is it important to remain within your scope of practice?

_____

_____

_____

_____

NHMEC Grading Scale

Score	Result
90–100%	Honors
80–89%	Pass
Below 80%	Retake Required

Minimum Passing Score: 80%

Instructor Signature: _____

Student Signature: _____

Certificate Approved: □ Yes □ No

Natural Health Ministries Education Center (NHMEC)
Faith-Centered Herbal Wellness Education for God's Creation 🐾🌿✝️