NHMEC Wellness Herbalist Diploma

Module 5 Quiz

Therapeutic Kitchen Herbalism & Functional Nutrition

Instructions: Choose the one best answer for each question.

Passing Score: 80%

Students who do not achieve a passing score may review the material and retake the assessment.

---

1. The therapeutic kitchen is designed to:

A. Promote everyday wellness through food and herbs

B. Replace medical treatment

C. Store only supplements

D. Eliminate all illness

---

2. Functional nutrition focuses on:

A. Whole foods that support wellness

B. Fast food

C. Highly processed foods

D. Skipping meals

---

3. A kitchen apothecary is:

A. A collection of herbs and wellness supplies

B. A pharmacy

C. A hospital

D. A laboratory

4. Which of the following is considered a culinary herb?

A. Basil

B. Plastic

C. Coffee

D. Baking soda

---

5. Which herb is commonly used in herbal teas?

A. Chamomile

B. Concrete

C. Motor oil

D. Plastic

---

6. Whole foods are generally:

A. Minimally processed foods

B. Highly processed snacks

C. Artificial sweeteners

D. Soft drinks

---

7. One goal of a therapeutic kitchen is to encourage:

A. Healthy daily meal preparation

B. Skipping meals

C. Eating only packaged foods

D. Avoiding vegetables

---

8. Functional nutrition encourages:

A. Balanced meals

B. Meal skipping

C. Excess sugar intake

D. Dehydration

---

9. Hydration is an important part of:

A. Physical wellness

B. Hospital care

C. Surgery

D. Pharmacy

---

10. Herbal foods include:

A. Soups and herbal teas

B. Prescription medications

C. Energy drinks

D. Candy

---

11. A common herbal preparation is:

A. An infusion

B. Concrete

C. Plastic

D. Motor oil

---

12. The Wellness Herbalist encourages families to:

A. Prepare meals at home when possible

B. Eat only restaurant food

C. Skip breakfast

D. Avoid cooking

---

13. Which is an important part of meal planning?

A. Variety and balance

B. Eating the same food daily

C. Skipping vegetables

D. Avoiding hydration

---

14. A therapeutic pantry should include:

A. Herbs, spices, and whole-food staples

B. Only canned soda

C. Candy and chips

D. Cleaning chemicals

---

15. Which of the following supports functional nutrition?

A. Fresh fruits and vegetables

B. Sugary beverages

C. Highly processed snacks

D. Excessive fast food

---

16. The Holistic P.E.N. Way™ can be applied in the kitchen by:

A. Combining nutrition, healthy habits, and gratitude

B. Ignoring spiritual wellness

C. Focusing only on recipes

D. Avoiding meal planning

---

17. Which pillar of the Holistic P.E.N. Way™ includes healthy meals and hydration?

A. Perspective

B. Essence

C. Nutrition

D. Observation

---

18. Which pillar encourages gratitude and fellowship during meals?

A. Perspective

B. Nutrition

C. Observation

D. Documentation

---

19. Which pillar includes reducing stress around meal preparation?

A. Essence

B. Nutrition

C. Perspective

D. Leadership

---

20. A Wellness Herbalist teaches therapeutic kitchen principles by:

A. Educating individuals and families

B. Diagnosing nutritional deficiencies

C. Prescribing diets

D. Performing medical procedures

---

21. Which activity is within the Wellness Herbalist's scope of practice?

A. Teaching healthy cooking and herbal education

B. Prescribing medications

C. Diagnosing digestive disorders

D. Ordering laboratory tests

---

22. Meal planning can help families:

A. Build healthier daily routines

B. Eliminate all illness

C. Avoid fresh foods

D. Reduce water intake

---

23. Kitchen organization helps:

A. Improve safety and efficiency

B. Replace healthcare

C. Diagnose illness

D. Eliminate the need for planning

---

24. Professional wellness education should encourage:

A. Sustainable lifestyle habits

B. Guaranteed health outcomes

C. Self-diagnosis

D. Medical treatment recommendations

---

25. Which statement best summarizes Module 5?

A. Therapeutic kitchen herbalism combines functional nutrition, culinary herbs, healthy meal planning, and the Holistic P.E.N. Way™ to educate individuals and families while remaining within the Wellness Herbalist's educational scope of practice.

B. Kitchen herbalism replaces conventional healthcare.

C. Culinary herbs are used only for flavor and have no educational value.

D. Wellness Herbalists prescribe nutrition plans to treat disease.