Biblical Nutrition & Wellness

Module 2.2 • Christian Herbalist

KJV-ONLY APP STUDY EDITION

Prepared from the supplied NHMEC 2026 guidebook for app use. Older Canvas directions are not carried forward. This is a concise study edition, not a page-for-page reproduction of the archived source PDF.

Course Focus

The supplied Module 2.2 guidebook studies wellness and nutrition through a biblical lens. Topics include dietary laws and practices, whole foods, moderation, fasting, the dietary setting of Jesus' time, bread, fish, olive oil, grapes, fruits, vegetables, and communal meals.

Core Study Themes

- Biblical nutrition as physical nourishment joined with spiritual stewardship
- Whole and minimally processed foods
- Moderation and self-control
- Fasting as a spiritual discipline
- Bread, fish, olive oil, grapes, figs, pomegranates, vegetables, legumes, nuts, flax, herbs, and spices
- Food, hospitality, fellowship, and community
- Comparing ancient bread with modern commercial bread
- Nutrition and safety considerations for fish and other foods

Proverbs 25:16 (KJV)
Hast thou found honey? eat so much as is sufficient for thee, lest thou be filled therewith, and vomit it.

1 Corinthians 6:19-20 (KJV)
What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.

KJV-Only Correction

The archived source guidebook contains a small number of non-KJV Scripture quotations. They are not reproduced here. When studying Psalm 119:103, Leviticus 11:9, and all other biblical passages, use the King James Version only.

Study Reflection

- How does the course connect nourishment with stewardship?
- What principles of moderation and fasting appear in the source?
- How are bread, fish, olive oil, and produce used to explore biblical food culture?
- How can modern nutrition education remain responsible without turning biblical examples into medical promises?

Educational Notice. This study edition is for faith-centered wellness education and does not diagnose, prescribe, treat, cure, or replace licensed medical care. Students are responsible for working within applicable laws and scope. Scripture quotations in this app edition are King James Version
