Biblical Herbalism

Module 2.1 • Biblical Herbalism

KJV-ONLY APP STUDY EDITION

Prepared from the supplied NHMEC 2026 guidebook for app use. Older Canvas directions are not carried forward. This is a concise study edition, not a page-for-page reproduction of the archived source PDF.

Course Focus

The supplied Module 2.1 guidebook develops Biblical Herbalism through Christian discernment, the role of the Christian herbalist, prayer and Scripture, biblical foods and herbs, and women in Scripture whose stories connect with health, healing, perseverance, and restoration.

Core Study Themes

- Discernment while studying herbalism
- Christian herbalist identity, ministry, education, and whole-person wellness
- Prayer and Scripture in a faith-centered herbal approach
- Biblical examples of herbs, foods, oils, and spices
- The body as the temple of the Holy Ghost
- Women in Scripture: the woman with the issue of blood, Hannah, the bent-over woman, and Naaman’s servant girl

Genesis 1:29 (KJV)
And God said, Behold, I have given you every herb bearing seed, which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree, in the which is the fruit of a tree yielding seed; to you it shall be for meat.

1 Corinthians 6:19-20 (KJV)
What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.

KJV-Only Correction

The archived source guidebook contains a small number of quotations from other Bible translations. Those non-KJV quotations are intentionally not reproduced in this app edition. Read Psalm 119:103 and Leviticus 11:9 in the King James Version for course work.

Study Reflection

- What makes Biblical Herbalism distinct in this course?
- Why is discernment emphasized?
- How should Christian herbalists describe herbs without replacing God, medical care, or responsible scope?
- What do the women’s stories teach about compassion, dignity, hope, and referral?

Educational Notice. This study edition is for faith-centered wellness education and does not diagnose, prescribe, treat, cure, or replace licensed medical care. Students are responsible for working within applicable laws and scope. Scripture quotations in this app edition are King James Version (KJV) only.
